DAVID A.R. WHITE

David A.R. White is a storyteller by nature. David has been building his career in the film industry for more than 25 years.

David was raised in a small Mennonite farming town outside of Dodge City, Kansas. At the age of 19, he moved to Los Angeles and within 6 months landed a role for close to 4 years on the top 10 television and Emmy award winning show Evening Shade with Burt Reynolds. Since then, he has starred in over 25 feature-length films, including the 5 films in the God's Not Dead Franchise that have grossed over 100 million dollars US theatrically worldwide.

David's first book, Between Heaven and Hollywood: Chasing Your God-Given Dreams was released by Zondervan/Harper Collins. It gives audiences a more complete, wide-reaching picture of how his dreams worked through his life in pursuit of his filmmaking in an ever changing culture. For David, the dreams we have, give a person their highest calling they can receive. David recently reprised his role and starred in the new Revelation Road Series in South Africa. It's based on David's first three movies in the franchise. Due out in 2025.

When he's not producing or starring in films, David enjoys making bite size fun content for his socials that garner millions of followers. He currently lives in Los Angeles and has three children.

All proceeds raised ensure FCCS is able to leave a legacy through it's mission of Assisting Parents in providing a Christ Centered Education that values exceptional academics, strong moral character and service to others. Foothills Community Christian School is a non-profit 501 (c) (3) organization and donations are tax deductible.
