TIM & ELISABETH HASSELBECK

Tim and Elisabeth Hasselbeck are familiar household names thanks to their time in television and entertainment.

Tim is a former NFL quarterback and currently works as an ESPN analyst, regularly appearing on SportsCenter, Get Up, NFL Live and ESPN Radio. Tim spent six seasons in the NFL as a player, most notably with the Washington Football Team, as well as with the New York Giants, where he served as a backup to Eli Manning.

Elisabeth is a former co-host of Fox & Friends and was a co-host on ABC Daytime's The View for 10 years. Prior to that, she was a shoe designer for PUMA, and in 2002, she competed on Survivor: The Australian Outback, taking fourth place. She also founded a gluten free food company named Nogii and has written three best-selling books including the children's book, Flashlight Night: An Adventure in Trusting God.

Both Tim and Elisabeth graduated from Boston College. Tim completed a degree in Marketing, while Elisabeth majored in Studio Art. They both support Team Red, White and Blue (Teamrwb.org), a non-profit veterans organization dedicated to forging the way for better health and wellness for our nation's veterans. The couple have three children, Grace, Taylor, and Isaiah.
